From Feudal Stagnation To Capitalist Dynamism: Uneven Development, Late Development, and Uneven and Combined Development
Robert Brenner | Uneven and Combined Development for the 21st Century Conference
"Anyone predicting that Trotsky’s ‘law’ of uneven and combined development (UCD) would soon become a key theoretical reference would have been treated with a great deal of scepticism... [But] not since the vogue for Gramsci’s notion of hegemony in the 1970s and 1980s has a concept from the classical Marxist tradition enjoyed such widespread academic diffusion."

How International Migrations Are Transforming Cities? The Case of London
John Eade | Obserwatorium Wielokulturowości i Migracji
"The presentation describes the current character of London as a global city through an outline of the city’s immigration from the 17th century onwards."

The Politics of Green Transformation
Melissa Leach, Peter Newell, Ian Scoones | Institute of Development Studies
"In recent years, climate change and the environment has shot up the agenda in political and public discourse, and a new type of politics has taken shape, with many people calling for urgent, radical change."

On Jimmy Hoffa, Labor Unions, and the Rise and Fall of the Mob
Jack Goldsmith | Conversations with Bill Kristol
"In this conversation, Goldsmith recounts how his stepfather, Charles ‘Chuckie’ O’Brien, became the prime suspect in Hoffa’s disappearance, and how this affected their relationship over the next decades."

The Altarpiece in Italy in the Age of Leonardo
Carlo Corsato | The National Gallery
"The video leads through the mind of Leonardo da Vinci to explore his masterpiece, ‘The Virgin of the Rocks’."

Is Protest Music Dead?
Don Letts | BIMM Institute
"The panel talk about protest music as a tool for social change, how it’s changed throughout the decades and its relevance today."

Blame, Forgiveness and Apology
Miranda Fricker, Elinor Mason, Glen Pettigrove | Royal Philosophical Society of Glasgow
"To what extent can groups or individuals be held blameworthy for beliefs or behaviour which discriminate against women or minorities even when the beliefs and behaviour are subconscious and/or accepted practice?"

Are Democracies Dying?
Daniel Ziblatt | American Academy in Berlin
"There is a widespread perception that democracies are experiencing a global recession. This lecture comes to an opposite conclusion: the number of democracies in the world has actually remained surprisingly robust."

An Interview With Mary Beard
Mary Beard | Universitat Oberta de Catalunya
"Which stories endure, and who controls them? With wry wit, in this conversation Mary Beard argues it’s time for change."
The Nexus of Food and Climate Change
Shlomi Goren, Adam Kaye, David Rosenberg | Columbia Business School

“What is the global food system's role in climate change, and how are businesses tackling these issues?”